A Message to All YPAS Students and Parents

Dear Students and Parents:

It is with great pleasure that we take this opportunity to welcome each of you to the Youth Performing Arts School Band Department and the 2021-2022 school year. Over the past forty-three years, YPAS has built a reputation for guiding highly qualified, self-motivated students to levels of musicianship far greater than can be achieved in a normal school situation. This has been accomplished through the development of a comprehensive and accelerated curriculum which has been customized through the formation of a four-year course of study for each instrument. Since this curriculum was implemented in 1993, the number of YPAS Band students placed in All-County and All-State honor groups has more than tripled. Many educators throughout the state have recognized that YPAS has set new standards for the state of Kentucky in both the quantity and quality of literature being performed by our students. Furthermore, around 60% of our seniors elect to study music in college – many gaining scholarships and admittance into the finest universities and conservatories in the United States. However, regardless of your choice of college major, YPAS provides the environment necessary for students to grow and excel individually as musicians, as contributing members of a group, and as future connoisseurs of the arts.

An added bonus to our performing arts program is the superior academic program offered at duPont Manual High School which has consistently ranked tops in the state in standardized testing and academic competitions. Our senior classes annually boast of a near 100% graduation rate and earn millions of dollars in renewable scholarships to the finest schools in the nation.

The following pages are meant to provide you with information needed to make your school year successful. Included are course descriptions, their purpose, and core content. You will also find information on class requirements and expectations, resources needed, grading procedures, a list of important dates, copies of forms, private teacher reports, special project information, general policies and procedures, and other useful information. You are strongly urged to at least scan this handbook once, refer to it often when you have questions, and use it to keep track of assignments and important events throughout the year.

As I begin my 9th year of teaching (1st year at YPAS) and Mr. Gregory begins his 21st year of teaching (14th at YPAS), we want you to know we are both excited about your participation in the YPAS Band Program. We anticipate a year full of inspired music making and many memorable daily interactions with both students and parents. Please feel free to contact us at any time throughout the year. Open communication is a vital component of a program like this and I encourage each of you to discuss your progress and ask our advice as often as you wish. Here's to a rewarding year in music!

PLEASE USE OUR BAND WEBSITE: www.ypasbands.weebly.com AS YOUR INFORMATION HUB. The YPAS Bands website will also give you a fast access link to the main YPAS website, and will provide the easiest way to stay “up-to-date” with all the news and events at YPAS and in the Band Department.

Sincerely,

THE PRODUCERS – THE YPAS PARENT SUPPORT ORGANIZATION

Youth Performing Arts School families have the unique opportunity to belong to our school's support organization, "The Producers". The Producers Board of Directors meets monthly and provides significant financial and moral support for each of the seven YPAS major areas (Band, Dance, Design and Production, Drama, Orchestra, Piano, and Vocal) to ensure that each student has the best chance for success. Over the years, this parent support group has replaced nearly every school owned instrument, purchased much of our band library, and funded our piano accompanist and instrumental specialists who serve as consultants and sectional teachers for our students. It is the funding of the Producers which allows the YPAS Band Department to provide such special opportunities for the students and to keep our fees as reasonable as possible!

In addition, the Producers provide an average of ten scholarships annually for outstanding seniors upon graduation and enrollment in a performing arts institution of higher learning. Only four-year Producers members are eligible for these scholarships. As a component of the school, the Producers also have a member serve on the School-Based Decision Making Council and help shape the policy and curriculum for both YPAS and Manual. The parents at YPAS are unique in their active participation and involvement in the education of their children and they assist in focusing the vision for the school's future. Also, parents serve as part of the academic tutoring program for students and they provide assistance for students seeking supplemental classes in the arts and in academics.

I strongly urge each of you to join this vital organization and, if possible, to get involved in the day-to-day activities of our unique program. Only members can vote on the distribution of funds each year and we need your input to keep the band department funded in the future.

The following link can be used to access The Producers website. You can click on the Board/Reps button on their site to see the names of parents, administrators, and teachers currently serving on the board.

FORMS TO BE SIGNED AND RETURNED TO SCHOOL

There are five forms which need a parent signature each year. These can be found as Google Forms on our website <https://www.ypasbands.weebly.com> or you can use these hardcopies provided in the handbook. The first is this Policy and Procedures Form which simply states you have reviewed the class syllabi and understand class expectations, requirements, and grading procedures. The second form is a Blanket Field Trip Permission and Release Form for locations within Jefferson County. It will be in effect for the entire school year to save having to fill this out multiple times. Third, there is a Fundraising Permission Form allowing each student to participate in fundraising projects to help them earn funds for fees and the spring band trip. The fourth form is the Grading Policy. Lastly, we need the Student Information Sheet. By signing and returning these forms in an expeditious manner, each student earns their first written work grade of the year. If these forms are not returned by the assigned due date, the student begins the year with zero points for the first written assignment.

We have read the 2021-2022 Youth Performing Arts School Class Syllabi, Itinerary, and information concerning Due Dates for Written Work, Special Projects and Etudes. By signing the paper below, we understand all the class requirements, grading system, yearly schedule, and due dates for class work completion.

INSTRUCTIONAL FEES AND OTHER COSTS

Band Fee - $125.00 and Optional Professional CDs Fee - $44.00

In order to provide for a quality music education, the Band Department is charging a $125.00 music fee for each student enrolled in Intermediate Band, Percussion Ensemble, Symphonic Band, Wind Ensemble, Jazz Ensemble, and/or Chamber Ensemble. This is a one-time fee per year regardless of the number of classes the student takes. This will allow for the purchase of literature and developmental materials throughout the school year for all of our ensembles. An additional $44.00 (Optional) will be used to provide each student four professionally produced CD's of our band concerts for their personal archives. Checks should be made payable to the Youth Performing Arts School (YPAS) and should be paid by Wednesday, August 25, 2021.

Instrument Rental Fee - $40.00 / $20.00

An instrument rental fee of $40.00 for the school year will be charged to any student who does not own their own instrument and must rely on the school to furnish an instrument. If a student does own their principal instrument, but voluntarily performs on an instrument needed for full instrumentation, then the student is only required to pay $20.00 for the entire year. Percussion students will need to pay the entire $40.00 due to the expensive nature of keeping so many instruments in good working condition and maintaining drum heads, snare mechanisms, special mallets, and purchasing small special effect instruments when needed. No flutes, clarinets, alto saxophones, or trumpets will be available for rental. Oboes and piccolos are very limited. We have a small selection of very high quality instruments available for students performing on bass clarinet, soprano saxophone, tenor saxophone, baritone saxophone, bassoon, horn, euphonium, trombone, bass trombone, and tuba. All checks should be made payable to the Youth Performing Arts School (YPAS) and should be paid by Friday, September 10, 2021.

All-County and All-State Band Fees - $5.00, $10.00, $25.00, $55.00, $150.00

The All-County Band audition in November is free, but if you are selected to perform with the band, there is a folder fee of $25.00. That fee pays for your music, a t-shirt, and lunch during the all day rehearsal. There is an initial $5.00 fee for the first round regional All-State Band Audition and a second audition fee of $10.00 at the second round state level auditions in December. There is also a $10.00 fee for the All-State Jazz Audition in December. If you are chosen to perform with any All-State group, there is a $55.00 folder fee. Also, students who are selected to perform with the All-State groups may elect to stay at the Galt House for three nights in February while they are rehearsing for their February performance. That fee usually runs in the area of $160.00 for three nights lodging. These fees will be collected prior to KMEA due dates.

Concert Dresses for Girls - $78.00

Girls will need to purchase the required performance dress, which runs $78.00. This fee should be paid as soon as possible so the dresses may be ordered and arrive in time for needed alterations and hemming.

KMEA Solo and Small Ensemble Fees - $8.00 and $12.00

Students are required to perform a solo at the annual KMEA music festival in February. The fee for this event is $8.00 per solo. Students who elect to perform in a small ensemble should divide the fee of $12.00 between the members of the ensemble. See Calendar for due date for payment.

Annual YPAS Band Spring Performance/Festival Tour

Every spring the Symphonic Band, Wind Ensemble, and possibly the Jazz Ensemble and Percussion Ensemble embark on a national or international tour, which includes a performance in a prestigious music festival/competition. The individual student fees are set and announced each year sometime within the first couple months of the school year. An average price somewhere between $900.00 and $1000.00 has been the normal cost per student for this educational experience. All fund-raisers go entirely to help defray the costs of the trip. Students and families may use Kroger Cards to help defray the overall cost of the trip. I highly recommend getting as many family and friends as possible to participate. The money you spend on groceries, gas, prescriptions, etc. at Kroger will all add up with a 4% rebate. Go to www.krogercommunityrewards.com and USE CODE 11130 to support YPAS Bands.

THREE RING BINDER FOR CURRICULUM PACKETS

Each student enrolled in an instrumental class at the Youth Performing Arts School will be issued an Individualized Educational Program Packet. This packet will include copies of all the required etudes, educational articles, and solo repertoire for the entire school year. We are requiring students to purchase a small three ring binder to hold these important educational materials. Each student should bring the binder to class as soon as possible so they may begin work on these assignments. Each assignment has a special due date which will be strictly enforced with a ten point per day penalty for late work. We will not issue these materials until the student brings a binder to class.

COLLABRA MUSIC

Students enrolled in instrumental music classes will develop polished etude, scale, and solo repertoire portfolios summarizing their four-year tenure at YPAS. The students will record specified etudes (from their curriculum packet) and scales once each six weeks using the Collabra Music software (free to students) to be submitted for a grade. After the recordings are graded, students will receive feedback and a score. Etudes must be recorded in order and will be an accumulation of 24 etudes after four years of study. Begin your performance with a brief announcement such as, "This is Clair Anette performing freshman etude no. 3."

STUDENTS ON FEE WAIVER OR FREE/REDUCED LUNCH

Any student on fee waiver or qualifying for free/reduced lunch can have Music and Instrument Rental fees paid for them by filling out the appropriate forms at Manual High School and YPAS and informing the directors that you qualify.

CLARINET AND SAXOPHONE STUDENTS

All clarinet and saxophone students will need to acquire an approved professional quality mouthpiece by the end of the first semester. I have a mail order catalogue from which you may order the mouthpiece for a reduced price. Your ligature should be one that allows for minimum contact with the reed. Some well known brands include the Bonade inverted type, Vandoren, Gigliotti, Luyben, Rovner, and the Harrison gold and silver. Exceptions will be made only for students whose private teacher recommends a different brand of mouthpiece, which the YPAS band director will approve as an appropriate substitute.

REEDS

Each student is responsible for purchasing their own reeds and having an ample, high quality supply on a daily basis. There will be EMERGENCY REEDS available for student purchase from YPAS this year for students performing on Eb soprano clarinet, bass clarinet, and soprano, tenor, and baritone saxophones.

BRASS LUBRICANTS AND ROTARY VALVE CORD

Each student is responsible for keeping their instrument (whether school or personally owned) in good working order and having an ample supply of lubricants in the instrument case for oiling valves and keeping slides moving freely. Valves should be checked before class/rehearsal to avoid mishaps during class time. A small supply of lubricants and rotary valve cord will be available in the director's office for emergencies. Students using school owned instruments are responsible for keeping valves and slides well oiled and lubricated as well as maintaining the structural integrity and visual aesthetics of the instruments. Any new damage will be repaired at the expense of the student.

MUTES

All brass players are responsible for supplying their own mutes as needed in the literature we will be studying. It is important to perform with the mutes in all rehearsals when the music is marked accordingly. The mutes change response, feel, intonation, and other aspects which must be rehearsed regularly. Straight mute, Cup mute, Harmon mute, etc. as needed.

PERCUSSIONISTS

Percussionists are responsible for the purchase and storage of their own sticks and mallets. It is suggested that a briefcase or stick bag be used. Most Vic Firth and Saul Goodman sticks/mallets are of good quality. You are required to keep school and/or personal sticks and mallets in the percussion cabinet or with you personally. Do not leave any equipment out of its proper storage space at the end of rehearsal, including your music. Keep all percussion instruments covered if a cover is available. It is very important to consider how you begin class each day. As you enter the band room you should take your folder from the folio cabinet and proceed to the percussion section. On the front wall will be the rehearsal order for that class period. Go ahead and arrange your music in order of rehearsal and collect the percussion instruments, sticks, and mallets you will need for that rehearsal. Rearrange the setup if necessary. In any event, you only have about three minutes before warm-up begins. You must participate in warm-ups. Do not loiter or talk during warm-up time. In Wind Ensemble, participate in all scale exercises. In Symphonic Band, play the percussion parts in your warm up book.

LOCKERS AT YPAS

Students may obtain a locker at YPAS even if they are not a YPAS major. Due to the relatively small amount of instrument storage space in the Band Room, students with smaller instruments such as flutes, clarinets, oboes, some trumpets and saxophones should use school hallway lockers for instrument storage when possible, or, may elect to share a band room locker with more than one student. We do have instrument storage lockers for larger and school owned instruments. Students who are issued lockers must follow these rules:

1. Lockers are to be used only for the storage of your musical instrument (in its case), and your music folder. They will not be used as a substitute for school lockers or for book or clothing storage.
2. Upon entering the band room, you may store your book bags, books, or jackets in the instrument locker during class. After class, these articles must be removed and replaced by your instrument inside its case. Anything other than an instrument or your music folder the faculty finds in your locker after school at the end of the day will be confiscated and sent to lost and found.
3. Refrain from sharing your locker combination with other students. Write your combination down and keep it in a safe place (your phone, wallet or purse) in case you forget your combination. The faculty cannot and will not waste class time looking up your locker combination.
4. At the conclusion of a class, all lockers must be shut and the combination lock engaged with the door latched in the locked position. Daily points will be subtracted from students who leave combination locks and/or locker doors open after class has been dismissed. Referrals and parent notification will occur if this happens regularly.

INSTRUMENT STORAGE AND MUSIC FOLDER CABINET SLOT ASSIGNMENTS

All brass and woodwind instruments must be stored in the instrument storage lockers in the band room or in the YPAS hallway lockers outside of regular rehearsal class time. Instrument cases are not to be lying around the band room floor due to security and safety reasons. It is important, also, that instrument cases be kept clear of the actual rehearsal area during class. Do not store your case, your backpack, or any other items which would not be on a performance stage either around or under your chair during the rehearsal – this area must be kept clear for acoustical reasons, movement in and out of the rows, and for directors to walk unencumbered during class time.

Instrument cases must remain closed and fastened when the instrument is in the case. All music folders are to be stored in the appropriate folio cabinet or your locker when not in use. They must not be left lying on top of filing cabinets, the floor, chairs, or music stands. Daily average points will be deducted for such infractions.

ALL-COUNTY AND ALL-STATE BANDS

Information on audition dates and times will be made available to all students. The All-State music will also serve as chair audition music at the beginning of the first semester. It is important that students take the audition for these organizations seriously. A tremendous amount of scholarship money becomes available when students are selected to perform with these prestigious groups. Even if the student does not plan to major in the performing arts in college, membership in such organizations looks impressive on a resume and provides proof that the student is high achieving and compares favorably with other competitors for college acceptance and financial aid.

Prestigious and World Renown University Conductors serve as Guest Conductors for these groups. Working under these master teachers not only expands your knowledge and interest, but also allows for the student to make important contacts with someone that carries much influence in college admissions. It is expected that all students will audition for these special ensembles.

PRIVATE LESSONS

The competition for Principal Chairs at YPAS, All-County, and All-State is very strong. Hard work in class plus private lessons will certainly help the individual raise his/her performance standards. It is absolutely necessary that the studio or private teacher be a professional performer on the instrument being studied. Any student wishing to pursue music as a career or as a college major should certainly begin private instruction with the best and most qualified teacher available as early as possible. Furthermore, instrumental music study at YPAS is a highly accelerated curriculum compared to regular program high schools. The literature is advanced and the amount of rehearsal time between performances is short. There is also concentrated individual attention to the building of a personal solo and etude repertoire, written responses to professional journal readings, critical listening assignments, and special projects to enhance the curriculum. Therefore, private instruction with a master performer on your instrument is important. If private instruction is a hardship, students can do a weekly assessment on progress with an Instrument Specialist Sectional Coach or band director.

The YPAS Band faculty is committed to ensuring that each student in the band program achieves a high level of performance skill on their chosen instrument and that each student has the chance to pursue instrumental music at the university and professional level if they so choose.

If you are not satisfied with your current private instruction, we can provide you with the names and contact information of master teachers who have, over a period of years, proven their ability to take students to the highest levels on their instrument. They are consistently placing their private students in honor groups and helping them receive scholarships to the finest schools in the nation.

In the event private lessons are unattainable for financial reasons, students must immediately contact Dr. Callihan or Mr. Gregory to make arrangements for weekly progress verification through an Instrument Specialist Sectional Coach at YPAS or with one of the band directors.

SMARTMUSIC – AN EFFECTIVE PRACTICE PARTNER AT HOME

Required assignments may be made using the SmartMusic software and the YPAS band faculty would like to strongly encourage all students to consider a home subscription to the SmartMusic Intelligent Accompanist Program. SmartMusic is the name of software which allows a student to practice with piano accompaniment without the pianist actually being present, or the full band without the other 99 students being at your house. However, the most important feature is that it nurtures superior practice habits and makes this part of learning to play a musical instrument much more fun and enjoyable. If you cannot get the software for home use, it will be available to you at YPAS. The information below highlights the benefits of SmartMusic:

Learning to Listen – When practicing alone, students can perfect bad habits. Oftentimes pitch, rhythm, blend, and balance suffer when students do not have an accompaniment to which they can listen. Listening while you play is an essential skill that must be encouraged and developed. The best way to nurture this critical skill is to have accompaniment as often as possible when practicing.

Understanding the Music – You need to hear the accompaniment to any piece to fully understand and respond to the complete composition. Your part is only a portion of the musical dialogue. Practicing with the accompaniment also helps the musician grasp the form, structure, and style of a composition and helps unlock the drama and emotion of the music.

Practicing Slowly – Practicing passages faster than you can play them perfectly means that you are learning them imperfectly! Your body will remember whatever information you put in, so make sure all the information is correct the first time and every time to avoid having to unlearn mistakes. You can practice at any tempo required to handle a passage with confidence and consistency without changing the key or pitch level of the accompaniment. The software will also play your part of any piece so you may listen to the whole composition performed, or, turn off the solo line and play it personally.

Recording Yourself – While performing, students do not hear how they perform as easily and accurately as when they listen to a recording. SmartMusic allows the student to record anything from one measure to an entire piece. These recordings can even be saved to CD or emailed to family, friends, or teachers.

Practice On Your Schedule – SmartMusic is always ready when you are. The accompaniment will play the part exactly as you want it to each time.

It Follows You – SmartMusic’s Intelligent Accompaniment will actually follow your tempo changes like a good human accompanist, so you are free to play with expression and musicality.

Fun – It is, of course, more fun to practice with others than alone. With SmartMusic, you always have “someone” to practice with and that makes it more enjoyable.

SmartMusic has thousands of solo compositions, band repertoire, jazz repertoire, over 60,000 exercises and etudes, a tuner, a metronome, band methods, and much, much more.

SmartMusic will make practicing more fun, more productive, and more likely! Any parent having questions regarding SmartMusic is encouraged to call Dr. Callihan or Mr. Gregory at school (313-4160 or 485-8355).

HOME SUBSCRIPTIONS OF SMARTMUSIC FOR YPAS STUDENTS

The YPAS account is set up to accept student home subscriptions of Smartmusic. The cost for a one year student home subscription is around $40.00. This is an amazing price for such an incredible learning/practicing tool. Hopefully, all students will be able to take advantage of this offer. The directions listed below will assist you in the process of initiating your subscription:

1. Go to smartmusic.com
2. Enter the number 1 in the Quantity Box. Then scroll down to look at what accessories you may need/want to go with the software. You must have a microphone of some sort to use the “smart” features of the software so the accompaniment will follow you when you play. The accompaniment can be started and stopped with the space key on your keyboard if you have a free hand. If both your hands must be used to hold and play your instrument, you may want to purchase a foot pedal to start and stop the accompaniment. Girls should provide their own black dress shoes (of a style matching our standard) and black hosiery. Anything other than this specific outfit including black hosiery and appropriate black shoes will result in the student either NOT PERFORMING or receiving a substantially reduced grade for the performance. (If you are over 5’9” tall you may have to pay an extra $3.00 for a tall size, or, if you require a special cut, there is a $15.00 charge for those sizes.) OVERVIEW OF COURSES OFFERED IN THE BAND DEPARTMENT

Jazz Improvisation - offered 2nd Block – Red Days

The primary goal of the Jazz Improvisation course is to provide students with a thorough technical, conceptual, and historical grasp of jazz improvisation through a comprehensive curricular structure. The student will study the necessary and appropriate scales and chords to use when improvising on a given set of chord changes. They will also study the proper stylistic interpretations by visually and aurally analyzing the solos of great jazz masters. Emphasis is placed on the technical aspects of chord/scale knowledge, typical patterns used by jazz masters, creativity, and instrumental technique to develop the ability to solo in all styles. The course will reach back to the roots of jazz to help students master techniques vital to jazz and commercial music.

Advanced Placement Music Theory II - offered 1st Block White Days

The prerequisite for this course is the Music Theory I class or being able to demonstrate the following equivalency skills. Students should know all their major and three forms of minor scales along with the medieval church modes. Students should be able to recall key signatures quickly and as a matter of fact. Students should be able to read fluently the lines and spaces of both the treble and bass staff. Minimum keyboard skills should include the ability to perform simple major and minor scales with correct fingerings and simple I-IV-V-I chord progressions in both hands. Additionally, students should be familiar with identifying, by ear, major, minor, augmented, and diminished intervals within the octave, and, singing solfeggio syllables on pitch. If the student has grasped these basic skills, then he/she may be ready for the Advanced Placement Theory II Curriculum.

The materials used in Music Theory II are designed to meet the needs of students considering music for serious study after high school and include instruction in four related areas: (1) written harmony (2) keyboard harmony (3) ear training (4) sight singing. This course concentrates on the learning of techniques of the classic European composers of the seventeenth to nineteenth centuries. The class includes a comprehensive survey of the harmonic materials used in these historical periods. Also, practical application of these materials takes the form of daily homework assignments solving traditional figured bass four part writing exercises, basic arranging, and, analysis techniques. Additional exercises in ear training concentrate on the areas of melodic, harmonic, and rhythmic dictations and analysis. Sight singing exercises correlate with the written and ear training material extending into the use of both major and minor key centers and elementary chromaticism. Near the end of the second semester, students will produce an original composition in the 18th century style using the techniques learned from the class. They will compose, arrange, and record their composition as a culminating project on cassette tape. At the conclusion of the course, students will take the Advanced Placement theory examination for an additional fee. According to the final score and whether a particular college accepts advanced placement credit, the student may be allowed to bypass Theory I and/or Theory II classes in college. Since the AP test in Music Theory was introduced by the Advanced Placement College Board, 100% of all YPAS students that have taken the test have passed - most often with the highest scores. It is recommended that students wait until their senior year to take this course so they do not lose their skills prior to entrance to college.

Percussion Ensemble/Intermediate Percussion - offered 3rd Block – Red Days

The Percussion Ensemble class emphasizes continued technical training, rehearsal, and performance of literature for percussion ensemble. Emphasis is placed on the reading, study, and performance of quality literature and transcriptions while continuing to reinforce those technical and personal skills gained from private lessons and intermediate skills development. The student will gain familiarity with the standard percussion ensemble literature, and, over a four-year period, be exposed to many of the major works of the percussion ensemble repertoire. Students will practice the application of performance skills by performing a solo senior recital. Outside rehearsal time will be required at certain times during the year in preparation for special performances at regional and national music education conferences and festivals. Freshmen percussionists will learn the curriculum of the Intermediate Skills Development class concurrently with ensemble skills development. Students will perform in at least one school concert during the year and perhaps present a concert at a regional or national music conference.

Symphonic Band - offered 4th Block – Red Days

The YPAS Symphonic Band class emphasizes continued technical and musical training, rehearsal, and performance of literature written for the large wind and percussion ensemble. Emphasis is placed on the reading, study, and performance of quality original band literature and transcriptions of high artistic merit while continuing to reinforce those technical and personal skills gained from study in the Intermediate Band. The student will gain familiarity with the standard band literature, and, over a period of four years, be exposed to most of the major works of the concert band repertoire. The student will perform in at least four school concerts, one regional, and one national music festival during the year.

Chamber Ensemble - offered 2nd Block – White Days

The Chamber Ensemble Class offers the student an opportunity to explore their solo and small ensemble repertoire more extensively. It also provides an environment which fosters individual growth in confidence, independence, musicality, productive interaction with peers, collaborative skills, personal responsibility to a group, aesthetics, ear training, responsive listening skills, interpretive skills, giving and receiving criticism, and the historical perspectives of the literature for their instrument. Emphasis is placed on developing mature rehearsal and time management skills while allowing the freedom for students to work up and develop performance presentations on their own with guidance from the instructors. Students perform a graded convocation every 3 weeks in class.

Intermediate Band Skills Development - offered 3rd Block – White Days

This class emphasizes the learning of music fundamentals while building the advanced sight-reading skills necessary to learn literature of high artistic merit in a short period of time. Students will focus on technical development and the practical application of musical knowledge while strengthening natural talents and retraining poor habits. The performance of all scales, the full range of the instrument from memory, numerous rhythm patterns, advanced articulation skills, and tone quality refinement will be stressed with each individual musician. Also addressed will be topics dealing with the development and use of vibrato, knowledge of professional performers and repertoire for each instrument, introduction to basic music history and theory concepts, and, the development of a musical terminology vocabulary. This course, taught in this manner, is available only at the Youth Performing Arts School and is one of the major keys to the success of our students and ensembles!

Wind Ensemble offered 4th Block – White Days

The YPAS Wind Ensemble provides the necessary program, climate, and structure to motivate the advanced wind and percussion student to achieve according to their unique learning patterns and to encourage maximum progress for the individual. This course places great emphasis on the reading and performance of high level, more transparent, and more sophisticated band literature (comparable to that which would be studied at the university level). As compared with Symphonic Band, this course differs in the following ways: (1) greater emphasis on scale development (2) greater responsibility of the individual performer to perfect their part (3) more difficult literature either technically, intellectually, musically, or combinations of the above (4) the formation of small chamber ensembles in the form of quartets and quintets which rehearse on a regular basis (5) active participation in the Pit Orchestra for musicals and ballets (Students involved in the Pit Orchestra will register for that as a 9th block class and receive a grade and a ½ music credit on their transcripts) (6) more stringent monitoring of solo and small ensemble repertoire development (7) performance in a public senior recital (8) students serve as a pool of performers from which they may be selected to perform works with unusual instrumentation different from the regular band instrumentation and/or the YPAS Full Orchestra. The student will perform in at least four school concerts, one regional, and one national music festival during the year.

Jazz Ensemble - offered for one half credit after school (9th Block)

The primary goal of this course is to provide students with a thorough technical, conceptual, and historical grasp of jazz and contemporary music through a comprehensive curricular structure. Teaching and learning will take place in three environments: (1) classroom - where instruction is given in ensemble playing, technical development, history and other related subjects (2) master classes - either on or off campus in clinics, lectures, and performances by professionals in the field (3) performance venues such as concerts, festivals, and clinics. The Jazz Ensemble focuses on traditional jazz forms to help develop the ability to “swing” in all styles. Students will study and perform a wide-ranging repertoire and receive the opportunity to participate in a session at a local recording studio. The students will perform in at least two school concerts during the year in addition to possible local, regional, and national festivals.

Pit Orchestra - offered for one half credit after school (9th Block)

The Youth Performing Arts School presents a school-wide production each fall which requires students from every major to come together and perform. This is most often a musical. The Band Department faculty will select the necessary students from the Wind Ensemble personnel to fill out the required instrumentation. Those students will then register for this 9th block class. Students will receive a grade for the class and a ½ music credit on their transcripts.

Course Description – Intermediate Band

Philosophy and Goals

It is the belief of the YPAS instrumental music department that all wind and percussion students should have an excellent knowledge of music fundamentals as well as accomplished skills in sight-reading. In most cases, the skills necessary to perform the quality of literature studied at the Youth Performing Arts School need remediation and further development in our incoming classes. These skills are taught in this entrance level course.

Technical development and practical application of musical knowledge will be emphasized as well as strengthening natural talents and retraining poor habits. All entering students are required to enroll in and/or complete this course before further or concurrent study in other YPAS ensembles will be allowed unless exemption is granted by the band director. This particular course, taught in this manner, is available only at the Youth Performing Arts School and is one of the major keys to the success of the program.

The goal of the course is to develop within each student the technical ability and performance skills necessary to be a capable and responsible member of a high quality musical ensemble. This knowledge base will be transferred to each student using intensified instruction and individualized attention. The playing of all scales the full range of the instrument from memory, numerous rhythm patterns, advanced articulation skills, and tone quality refinement will be the focal point of instruction. The student's sight reading ability will be elevated in order to learn a grade six difficulty level of band literature in a short amount of time. With the satisfactory conclusion of this course, technique should be much less of an obstacle in the individual musician's quest to achieve musical mastery of a piece of literature.

Course Description – Symphonic Band

The Symphonic Band class emphasizes continued technical and musical training, rehearsal, and performance of literature written for the large wind and percussion ensemble.

Emphasis is placed on the reading, study, and performance of quality original band literature and transcriptions of high artistic merit while continuing to reinforce those technical and personal skills gained from study in Intermediate Band. WIND ENSEMBLE

kevin.callihan@jefferson.kyschool.us

jason.gregory@jefferson.kyschools.us

Course Description – Wind Ensemble

Goal of the Course

The Wind Ensemble provides the necessary program, climate, and structure to motivate the advanced and more serious wind and percussion student to achieve according to their unique learning patterns and to encourage maximum progress for the individual. The class is reserved for students at the highest performance level (YPAS majors and Manual majors) who continue to enroll in two or more music classes each semester. This course places great emphasis on the reading and performance of high level and more sophisticated band literature of artistic merit in grades four, five, and six - comparable to that which would be studied at the university level. What makes the literature more sophisticated is not always the technical level of difficulty, but also the transparent nature of the scoring which features less full band arranging and more “chamber” experiences within the composition. These works also tend to be more “modern” in sound and do not always have traditional harmonic or melodic lines – often experimenting with dissonance or contemporary composition techniques. Typical compositions would feature original band works written by such composers as Bernstein, Copland, Dello Joio, Gillingham, Gould, Grainger, Gregson, Hindemith, Holst, Ives, Milhaud, Persichetti, Reed, Ticheli, and Vaughan-Williams.

As compared with Symphonic Band, this course will differ in the following ways:

1. Greater emphasis will be placed on the daily performance of learning and testing of the 12 major scales and the 3 forms of all minor scales.
2. Greater responsibility for individualized performance of parts in an ensemble. The instrumental sections are smaller and will in many cases be only one person per part.
3. In addition to performing a solo each semester at a student convocation performance, students are encouraged to form small ensembles and rehearse on a regular basis (once a week). Emphasis should be placed on ensembles of quartet or quintet size if possible. Chamber ensemble performances may occur occasionally from these groups on regular YPAS band concerts, special programs devoted solely to the performance of chamber music, and at corporate events around town which usually pay a fee for our performances.
4. The annual musical and dance production’s wind and percussion players will be chosen from this class. If assigned by the director to participate in the Pit

Orchestra for these school wide productions, then participation becomes a requirement of the class. Students receive a grade and an additional ½ music credit on their transcript.

5. Students are more closely monitored for repertoire development of solo and small ensemble literature.
6. All senior band members will perform on a group senior recital near the conclusion of the second semester for the general public.
7. Occasionally, when time permits, a YPAS Wind Sinfonietta will be chosen from the Wind Ensemble membership to perform works with unusual instrumentation, possibly in collaboration with special university guest conductors.

Performance Standards – Wind Ensemble

Students will have met the course objectives when they develop or continue to improve all course objectives from Intermediate and Symphonic Band classes plus the following:

1. Explores and expands instrumental technique to advanced levels.
2. Explores solo literature written for one's own specific instrument and performs in small ensembles to expand the knowledge base of performance period practices and literature.
3. Performs music literature which meets standards of artistic quality and which requires application and development of advanced expressive skills.
4. Demonstrates personal responsibility and a positive attitude toward rehearsals and performances.
5. Develops a sense of the aesthetic, expressive, artistic interpretation of music literature in order to achieve self-satisfaction.
6. Learns to rehearse and perfect music moving from a left brained analytical approach to a right-brained artistic, expressive, aesthetic performance.

Core Academic Content – Wind Ensemble

Students will have successfully completed the course of study for Wind Ensemble when they demonstrate proficiency in the following:

1. Perform all etude material assigned for that particular year and instrument as included in the Individual Education Program Curriculum Packet at a high level of excellence.
2. Perform two, and become familiar with, all solos assigned for that particular year and instrument as included in the Individual Education Program Curriculum.
3. Perform the highest caliber band literature of grade levels four, five, and six, chosen on the basis of serious artistic merit, on an average of four concerts and two festivals per year.

4. Perform small ensemble literature of the highest caliber.
5. Perform various exercises based on the concepts of Ed Lisk's Alternative Rehearsal Techniques including advanced articulation warm-ups using double and triple tongue patterns.
6. Perform, as assigned, in Full Orchestra and Pit Orchestra assignments for musicals, dance productions, and opera/oprettas.
7. Audition for and participate in All-County, All-State, BOA and other appropriate honor ensembles.
8. Participate, when appropriate, in nationally recognized summer camps and workshop/clinic experiences.

Forms of Assessment/Grading Scale – Intermediate Band, Intermediate Percussion, Symphonic Band, and Wind Ensemble

The grading procedures for the YPAS Intermediate Band, Concert Band, Symphonic Band, and Wind Ensemble are identical and conform to the Jefferson County Public Schools grading policy. The intent of this grading system is to accurately assess the student's academic progress and commitment to course objectives and educational goals. The academic grade reflects what the student knows and is able to do.

The following components will reflect those aspects of student performance that will be assessed and the percentages that will contribute to a student's grade:

Daily Average 10%

Based on simple rules of rehearsal etiquette, every student begins a six week grading period with a perfect score of 100 for their daily average. The criteria listed below constitute skills that will be monitored on a daily basis. If a student does not exhibit the appropriate rehearsal behavior during a class period, then points are deducted for each infraction. Criteria on which daily points are monitored are included below:

- ⇒ attendance at all classes and rehearsals
- ⇒ promptness - being on time for rehearsals
- ⇒ is ready to perform in all aspects including being warmed up, having all materials and equipment available, and making sure their instrument is mechanically set
- ⇒ enters and leaves the room in an orderly manner
- ⇒ does not talk while tuning or while the director is working in rehearsal
- ⇒ does not write on stands, chairs, or chalkboard
- ⇒ takes proper care of music, music folder, and instrument
- ⇒ brings a pencil to class and marks music according to directions
- ⇒ listens to the conductor and listens to other parts being performed by others
- ⇒ marks music after a mistake is made - does not trust memory
- ⇒ constantly listens and adjusts pitch and volume for proper balance and intonation
- ⇒ is always ready for entrances
- ⇒ always attempts to play part correctly
- ⇒ interprets as the conductor wishes
- ⇒ displays a professional attitude
- ⇒ uses the band room for its intended purpose
- ⇒ does not play or handle instruments not assigned to him/her

- ⇒ does not bring food, drink, or gum to band room (other than bottled water)
- ⇒ all instruments and music are stored properly before and after rehearsal with lockers closed and locks engaged.

Points lost for excused absences or tardiness must be made up in order to count toward class requirements. Unexcused tardiness and absences cannot be made up.

Concerts/Scale Tests/Individual Performance Quizzes/Concert Attendance and SmartMusic 20%

This component of the student's grade includes being present and on time for all performances, scale tests that are included on a student's etude recording each six weeks, and any individual playing exam called for in the regular class rehearsal. Examples include all of the following:

- ⇒ attendance and promptness at all performances including band concerts, Full Orchestra and Pit Orchestra assignments, solo and small ensemble concerts, all KMEA regional and state festivals, national performance assessment events (the spring tour).
- ⇒ Attendance at a minimum of TWO YPAS Music Department Performances outside your primary area. (Piano, Vocal, or Orchestra concerts and recitals).
- ⇒ assigned performance exams of an individual nature, such as scale tests, daily performance exams for a grade in intermediate band, and band literature excerpt exams in class and on SmartMusic.

Six Week Etude Performances 15%

Every student enrolled in Intermediate Band, Percussion Ensemble, Symphonic Band, or Wind Ensemble is required to practice and record, using Collabra Music, one etude each six weeks – (three per semester) for evaluation. Etude repertoire has been chosen for you. You must perform the appropriate etude from your individual educational curriculum packet. Make sure you proceed in order as listed (etude 1 for the first six weeks, etude 2 for the second six weeks, etc.). Announce what you are going to perform before you begin to play. Etude performances will be graded as if you practiced it for the entire six weeks. It should be a highly polished performance reflecting your finest playing ability.

Six Week Scales Performances 10%

Every student enrolled in Intermediate Band, Percussion Ensemble, Symphonic Band, or Wind Ensemble is required to practice and record, using Collabra Music, the appropriate set of scales as assigned on the Due Date Sheets (pages 58 and 59 of this handbook). Scales must be performed with a metronome at quarter note = 140 and scales should be two or more octaves when possible.

Semester Convocation Performance 15%

Every student enrolled in Intermediate Band, Symphonic Band, or Wind Ensemble will practice and perform one solo each semester for a student convocation performance. Convocations are student recitals performed in front of the YPAS faculty and your student peers. The solo must be chosen from repertoire included in your individual education curriculum guide for your instrument. Appropriate material would be a movement from a concerto, one or two movements from a sonata (depending on the length) or a single movement piece of significant artistic merit. Solos must be of a difficulty appropriate for study at YPAS and should be approximately 6 to 8 minutes of music. You must perform a solo listed for your year of study or higher – or Private teacher suggestions.

The performance must be with piano accompaniment. The accompanist will be provided for you. You should practice your solo with SmartMusic accompaniment until the day of your convocation to become familiar with the accompaniment part. While you are performing, your peers will fill out critique sheets on your performance. These sheets will be available for you to read at a later time. You will receive written comments and a grade from the appropriate band director shortly after your performance. This performance should reflect a full semester's work and should be highly polished and nuanced.

Private Teacher Report 10%

While a student at YPAS, you will receive credit for (1) your attendance at private lesson sessions, (2) your level of preparation for your private lessons, and (3) the progress noted over the period of each six weeks by the private lesson teacher. A Private Teacher Report must be completed and submitted each six weeks. The report must be filled out and signed by your private instructor. Students will forfeit all points toward this portion of the grade if it is found that the report and/or the private instructor signature are not valid. Falsifying a Private Teacher Report will be treated the same as cheating on a test. In the event private lessons are financially unattainable, students must immediately contact Dr. Callihan or Mr. Gregory to make arrangements for weekly progress verification through an Instrument Specialist Sectional Coach at YPAS or with one of the band directors.

Articles / Written Work 10%

Written work is any work a student submits in which they are writing as a reviewer of an assigned professional journal article or as a critique of an NPR radio broadcast, a live performance, or workshop. The written work will be assessed according to its content as well as how well it is actually written. Comments will reflect suggestions the student could use to improve their writing ability. The intent of these assignments is to accurately assess whether the student has read the assigned material and their level of comprehension of the pedagogical topics from the author. Writing assignments include the following:

- ⇒ one review / reaction paper of a professional music journal article each six weeks - three per semester. The articles are included in your curriculum guide. You must do these in the appropriate sequence as listed.
- ⇒ One critique each semester – must be LIVE PERFORMANCES!

Special Projects 10%

Students enrolled in Intermediate Band, Symphonic Band, and/or Wind Ensemble are given credit for performances outside of the regular YPAS ensembles or daily curriculum. These include such activities as:

- ⇒ Attendance and participation in approved Summer Music Camp(s).

- ⇒ All-County Concert and Symphonic Band, Orchestra, and/or Percussion Ensemble.
- ⇒ All-State Concert Band, Symphonic Band, Jazz Band, or Orchestra.
- ⇒ performing a solo and/or two ensembles in the annual KMEA Solo/Small Ensemble Festival. (Ratings = %) 1=100%, 2=90%, 3=80%.
- ⇒ performing in the Louisville Youth Orchestra the whole season.
- ⇒ Performing in a major ensemble at U of L the whole season.
- ⇒ performing in a YPAS Chamber Group rehearsing weekly the whole school year.
- ⇒ performing in the annual University of Louisville McCauley Chamber Music Competition. All of these activities require many hours of extra work.
- ⇒ Performing at the State Level Solo/Ensemble Festival in May.

In the event a student is not chosen to perform in these honor groups, alternative assignments are available for the student to earn the same points as a student involved in these outside activities. Alternative assignments are based on readings with review and reaction papers addressing subjects that will increase the student's knowledge of music literature and listening throughout time. These projects take a humanities based approach – drawing similarities and comparison of the evolution of music as an art form with its counterparts in visual art, architecture, philosophical thought, political events, and literature. All these are uploaded to the ypasbands.weebly.com website.

Community Resources - Application/Service/Learning Intermediate Band, Intermediate Percussion, Symphonic Band, and Wind Ensemble

There are several curriculum enhancement activities that take place each year at the Youth Performing Arts School which make our school a special place to study the arts. These include any or all of the following:

- ⇒ Career Day is an annual event at duPont Manual/YPAS which brings literally hundreds of college/university and conservatory representatives to our campus. This affords students an opportunity to gain first hand knowledge about specific college and university degree programs and course offerings as well as a chance to interview with and audition for acceptance and scholarship to many universities simultaneously. This program is offered in conjunction with the Governor's School for the Arts and is usually held in October each year.
- ⇒ Field Trip experiences may include performances of the Louisville Orchestra, Ballet, Bach Society, and other professional arts organizations. We have even taken a few trips to hear the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra. These opportunities will be announced as they become available.

- ⇒ Due to our special relationship with the University of Louisville, many University faculty members and professional arts organization members are regular guest clinicians and artists working closely with students in the wind and percussion instrumental music department at YPAS.
- ⇒ Participation in nationally recognized music festivals are regularly scheduled on an annual basis. In the past these excursions have taken us to Toronto, Boston, New York City, Philadelphia, Indianapolis, Washington D.C., Richmond Virginia, Montreal, San Antonio, Chattanooga, Chicago, New Orleans, Miami, Key West, and Cozumel, Mexico.
- ⇒ The Youth Performing Arts School serves as a regular host for many armed service and university bands traveling through the region. Because of our state of the art facilities, we often find ourselves taking advantage of these unusual and worthwhile opportunities through added concerts and clinics.
- ⇒ Finally, the Youth Performing Arts School offers the serious student opportunities unavailable in other educational settings. At YPAS, the student is closely monitored and has the opportunity to participate in all aspects of musical performance at the highest levels of accomplishment. This includes serious concert venues, solo opportunities, concert band, wind ensemble, full orchestra, chamber orchestra, quintets/quartets, jazz ensemble, jazz improvisation, opera, ballet, chamber music, contemporary music, original student composition, and two levels of music theory including advanced placement theory.

The following components will reflect those aspects of student performance that will be assessed and the percentages that will contribute to a student's grade:

Daily Average 50%

Based on simple rules of rehearsal etiquette, every student begins a six week grading period with a perfect score of 100 for their daily average. The criteria listed below constitute skills that will be monitored on a daily basis. If a student does not exhibit the appropriate rehearsal behavior during a class period, then points are deducted for each infraction.

Criteria on which daily points are monitored are included below:

- ⇒ is ready to perform in all aspects including being warmed up, having all materials and equipment available, and making sure their instrument is mechanically set
- ⇒ enters and leaves the room in an orderly manner
- ⇒ does not talk while tuning or while the director is working in rehearsal
- ⇒ does not write on stands, chairs, or chalkboard
- ⇒ takes proper care of music, music folder, and instrument
- ⇒ brings a pencil to class and marks music according to directions
- ⇒ listens to the conductor to parts being performed by others (NO CELL PHONES)
- ⇒ marks music after a mistake is made - does not trust memory
- ⇒ constantly listens and adjusts pitch and volume for proper balance and intonation
- ⇒ is always ready for entrances (NO CELL PHONES)
- ⇒ always attempts to play part correctly
- ⇒ interprets as the conductor wishes
- ⇒ displays a professional attitude
- ⇒ uses the band room for its intended purpose
- ⇒ does not play or handle instruments not assigned to him/her
- ⇒ does not bring food, drink, or gum to band room
- ⇒ all instruments and music are stored properly before and after rehearsal

Points lost for excused absences or tardiness must be made up in order to count toward class requirements. Unexcused tardiness and absences cannot be made up.

Concerts/Performances 50%

Satisfactory attendance at all percussion ensemble concerts, solo and small ensemble concerts, and all KMEA regional, state, and national performance assessment events. Also included are any regional or national conference performances, public performances off campus, and assigned performance exams of an individual nature, such as scale tests and band literature excerpt exams.

Chamber Ensemble

kevin.callihan@jefferson.kyschools.us

jason.gregory@jefferson.kyschools.us

Course Description – Chamber Ensemble

Philosophy and Goals

Most musicians and music educators agree there is no better way to develop a student's music skills and enthusiasm than in a small chamber ensemble. With only one on a part, students must develop confidence and independent playing skills. The responsibilities and rewards of performances are theirs, along with the opportunity to display their individual personalities out from under the teacher's baton.

Personal involvement in making music is the basis of musical literacy. Those who perform develop an abiding interest in the arts and hold the key to the understanding of the aesthetic qualities of all the arts. The rehearsal process itself can serve as a valuable model of productive interaction and collaboration toward a goal no one person can attain. Students in chamber groups owe it to each other to be well prepared and thoroughly committed.

Chamber music is even more important to students with professional aspirations in music. They must begin to develop their ear and their responsiveness, as they can do only by performing in carefully balanced chamber groups.

Each member of a chamber ensemble learns to listen more carefully to each part played, learns to be a better interpreter of music, learns to give and accept constructive criticism from peers, and listens for balance, intonation, dynamics, and tone quality more critically. Chamber ensemble performance helps students to become critical thinkers and develop creative skills in a more accelerated manner. Students also receive the added benefit of discovering a more encompassing range of repertoire from a historical point of view which expands their knowledge of performance practice techniques from the Renaissance to the 21st Century.

Finally, artist teachers from the community and the University of Louisville School of Music will, when possible, serve as special instructional coaches to supplement daily supervision from the YPAS Band Directors.

JAZZ IMPROVISATION

Kevin Callihan

kevin.callihan@jefferson.kyschools.us

Course Description – Jazz Improvisation

Goal of the Course

Jazz Improvisation is intended as a course which will complement the other instrumental music offerings at the school to help interested students develop the full array of skills needed to be an exceptional musician. Jazz Improvisation fits in perfectly with the philosophies of the YPAS Instrumental Music Department and our commitment to the training of young professional musicians. This training takes place through performance and practice in an intimate and supportive artistic community. This course will help students develop their ability to express their own creativity and prepare them to exist in the real world of music. To be successful as a musician, you must be versatile!

The primary goal of this course is to provide the students with a thorough technical, conceptual, and historical grasp of jazz improvisation through a comprehensive curricular structure. The students will study the necessary and appropriate scales and other digital sequences to use when improvising on a given set of chord changes. They will also study the proper stylistic interpretations by visually and aurally analyzing the solos of the great jazz masters such as Miles Davis, Charlie Parker, Clifford Brown, John Coltrane, Dizzy Gillespie, and others.

The Jazz Improvisation course will focus on the technical aspects of chord/scale knowledge, typical patterns used by jazz masters, creativity, and instrumental technique to help develop the ability to solo in all styles. The course will reach back to the roots of jazz to help the students master techniques vital to jazz and commercial music. Students will study and perform a wide-ranging repertoire including works by such seminal figures as Duke Ellington, Jerome Kern, George Gershwin, Cole Porter, Johnny Mercer, and others.

Jazz has a long tradition which must be maintained and expanded through serious study, total dedication, and self-motivation. This course will offer students the opportunity to learn about one of America's original art forms. Jazz may well be our country's most significant contribution to the world's musical culture. The fact that this course is being offered for credit demonstrates the wonderful support of the administration of YPAS to the development of the complete musician. Additional Information – Jazz Improvisation

Membership in the Jazz Improvisation course is open to anyone currently enrolled in the Symphonic Band, Wind Ensemble, Orchestra, or Piano Department with permission from the director. Other students may request enrollment in the course if they have a good knowledge of and technical foundation in major and minor scales and music notation. One or more performance groups may be selected from the total enrollment of the Jazz Improvisation course through an audition process which will be explained fully during the first few weeks of class. The minimum instrumentation of a performance group is:

Piano
Bass
Drums
Two or more wind instruments

Auditions will be held during the first month of class meetings. These audition results will be used to place individuals in small groups best suited to their current level of development. These auditions will also be used to select the Performance Group. Auditions will be based on the

All-State Jazz audition materials and will include One Swing tune, One Blues tune for Improvisation, Scales, and Sight-reading.

If just one student fails to do their part, the whole class is affected in a negative way. We must all help each other succeed. It is expected that everyone will have pride in themselves, the school, and this class. This course will focus on the team concept through the combination of self-discipline, love for music, and respect for one another. To be the best, everyone involved has to want to be the best. 100% attendance is an absolute necessity.

JAZZ ENSEMBLE

Course Description – Jazz Ensemble

Goal of the Course

The Jazz Ensemble is intended as a course which will complement the other instrumental music offerings at the school to help interested students develop the full array of skills needed to be an exceptional musician. Jazz Ensemble fits in perfectly with the philosophies of the YPAS Instrumental Music Department and our commitment to the training of young professional musicians. This training takes place through performance and practice in an intimate and supportive artistic community. This course will help prepare students to exist in the real world of music ranging from classical, to jazz and commercial. To be successful as a musician, you must be versatile!

The primary goal of this course is to provide the students with a through technical, conceptual, and historical grasp of jazz and contemporary music through a comprehensive four-year curricular structure. Teaching and learning will take place in three environments:

1. Classroom: Where instruction is given in ensemble playing, technical development, history and other related subjects.
2. Masterclasses: Either on, or off campus clinics, lectures, and performances by professionals in the field. Hopefully to be scheduled on a regular basis.
3. Performance: Concerts, Festivals, Clinics. Similar to KMEA Concert Band Festival. Extended trips may be planned to participate in prestigious events like the Lincoln Center Duke Ellington Competition in New York City, or the world's largest jazz festival in Montreux, Switzerland.

The Jazz Ensemble will focus on traditional jazz forms to help develop the ability to “swing” in all styles. The course will reach back to the roots of jazz to help the students master techniques vital to jazz and commercial music. Students will study and perform a wide-ranging repertoire including works by such seminal figures as Duke Ellington, Fletcher Henderson, and Count Basie, as well as works by contemporary composers. The students may also receive an opportunity to participate in a session at a local recording studio.

Jazz has a long tradition which must be maintained and expanded through serious study, total dedication, and self-motivation. This course will offer students the opportunity to learn about one of America's original art forms. Jazz may be our country's most significant contribution to the world's musical culture. The fact that this course is being offered for credit demonstrates the wonderful support of the administration of YPAS to the development of the complete musician. This is a direct investment in the future of jazz and it promises to bring a new level of artistic opportunity and excellence to the Youth Performing Arts School!

Curriculum enhancement activities will include any or all of the following:

- The Jazz Ensemble often performs “Demonstration Concerts” at local elementary and middle schools in an attempt to educate young people about the jazz art form.

- Participation in nationally recognized music festivals on an annual or bi-annual basis. We have recently been to Toronto, Boston, New York City, Philadelphia, Washington, D.C., Chicago, and San Antonio.
- The Youth Performing Arts School serves as a regular host for university jazz bands, armed service bands, and other professional jazz bands. Our state of the art facilities allow us many unusual and worthwhile opportunities.

Additional Information – Jazz Ensemble

Membership in the Jazz Ensemble class is open, by audition, to anyone currently enrolled in the Symphonic Band, Wind Ensemble, Orchestra, or Piano Department with permission from the director. But, due to the importance of balance, only one person must perform on each part during concerts, festivals, and so forth. A performance group will be selected from the total enrollment of the Jazz Ensemble class through an audition process which will be explained fully during the first week of rehearsals. The instrumentation of the performance group is:

Five Saxophones	2 Altos, 2 Tenors, and 1 Baritone
Five Trumpets	Occasionally only 4 are used. Trade off or double fourth.
Four Trombones	Occasionally a fifth trombone is required.
Rhythm Section	Piano, Vibes, Guitar, Bass, Drum set, and Aux. Percussion

Auditions will be held beginning the second full week of class meetings. These audition results will be used to place individuals on the parts best suited to their current level of development.

These auditions will also be used to select the Performance Group. To maintain the critical balance necessary for an outstanding jazz ensemble, and to maintain continuity, it is vital that the performing personnel remain consistent so the band plays “together.” Spots in the performing group may be obtained through a one-on-one challenge covering music selected by the director. Auditions will include one swing chart, One Blues tune for Improvisation, Scales, and Sightreading.

If just one student fails to do their part, the whole ensemble is affected in a negative way. We must all help each other succeed. It is expected that everyone will have pride in themselves, the school, and this ensemble. This ensemble will focus on the team concept through the combination of self-discipline, love for music, and respect for one another. To be the best, everyone involved has to want to be the best. 100% attendance at all rehearsals and performances is an absolute necessity.

GUIDELINES FOR CHALLENGES

It is the philosophy of the band department that an active and healthy challenge system improves the quality of performance of the musical ensemble as well as the individual student. It is the same in a regular academic class when the teacher explains that a pop quiz may come at any time on any given day. This promotes the idea that all students must be prepared all the time in case their ability to perform the literature being studied in class is challenged. The following guidelines should be followed in all challenges. Please read them carefully as rules will be strictly enforced.

1. Each student is allowed up to two challenges between concerts but no more than three total challenges per semester. However, a student may continue to challenge if they continue to win challenges. It is possible to move from last chair to principal even in a large section.
2. Challenge music must be copied and signed by both the challenger and the student being challenged with the date of the challenge clearly marked.
3. Music for the challenge will consist of excerpts from the band literature being studied in class for the next upcoming concert. The exact excerpts asked for will not be announced prior to the challenge, therefore, the entire selection(s) should be prepared.
4. No challenges are allowed five school rehearsal days prior to a concert, or, seven school rehearsals prior to a performance if a change of part is required.
5. All challenges will be conducted immediately after class or at a time agreed upon by both students involved and the directors.
6. Students are given only one chance to perform the excerpt when asked for by the facilitator.
7. Challenge results will be announced as soon as they are available. The decision of the teachers conducting the challenge will be final.

CONVOCAATION ASSESSMENT SCORESHEETS

The following forms are used by the YPAS Band faculty to assess your convocation performances. A few days after you have performed on convocation, you will receive these score sheets with our comments and suggestions so you may use this information with your private teachers to improve upon perceived weaknesses. These take a great deal of time to finish – so be patient with us.

PROCEDURES FOR WRITTEN WORK ASSIGNMENTS

Reading Assignments with Reaction Papers – Includes Article Reviews as well as Alternative Assignments for Special Projects

Every six weeks there are written assignments that constitute a percentage of your total grade for Intermediate Band, Symphonic Band, and/or Wind Ensemble. These are the procedures you should follow when completing these assignments:

1. Completely read the article or book excerpt.
2. Compose a written reaction to what you have read. Write your paper in the form of a Professional Journal Article which reviews “other articles” that may be of interest to students like yourself.
3. For an audience - address other high school musicians like yourself and make sure the paper contains the following information in a prose style:
 - ⇒ Title of the article or excerpt.
 - ⇒ Name of the author.
 - ⇒ A brief description of the subject matter the reading involves.
 - ⇒ Main points the author offers on various subjects or subheadings within the text of the assignment.
 - ⇒ Detail what was the most helpful information offered by the author.
 - ⇒ What did you learn from the reading assignment. Be specific and cite examples from the text.
 - ⇒ How will the article or excerpt help you or others become a better musician?
 - ⇒ Did the article stimulate your thinking in any way? List any questions, ideas, or suggestions for further reading on this topic.
 - ⇒ Make sure your paper has an appropriate title, audience, introduction, and conclusion.

Critical Review of a Classical “Live” Performance, Solo Performance, or Workshop

1. Each student will attend at least two live classical music performances of an instrumental soloist, small ensemble, vocal ensemble, concert band, wind ensemble, orchestra, chamber group, or master class/workshop each semester as an audience member.
2. Performances should generally be of high school or university level performers. These performers will be more close to your own level of musicianship so it will be easier to find both strengths and weaknesses in their presentations. Professional performances are acceptable and encouraged, but the art of criticism will be more difficult for you.
3. Write ONE review. Write as if it is an actual newspaper critique for musicians as well as non-musicians. ONE due at the end of each semester

A written review of the performance should include the following information in a prose style:

- ⇒ Name of the soloist or ensemble performing.
- ⇒ Date and place of performance.
- ⇒ A description of the intended audience for which the concert was given.

- ⇒ Instrumentation of the ensemble - list personnel only if it is a small group.
- ⇒ Titles and composers of the pieces being performed.
- ⇒ Provide some background information about the musical selections, if possible.
- ⇒ Comment on the quality level of performance using musical terminology. Talk about the following aspects of performance: tone quality, intonation, balance, blend, dynamic contrasts, rhythm and meter, articulation, the creation of a feeling or mood, appropriate attention to historical style or stylistic nuance, etc.
- ⇒ Was the performance appropriate for the intended audience?
- ⇒ Your personal reaction to the performance. Would you attend another by the same group or individual?
- ⇒ Include an interesting title to your review, and an appropriate introduction and conclusion.

HOLOSTIC SCORING GUIDE FOR WRITTEN WORK

- ⇒ Some errors in spelling, punctuation, and capitalization that do not interfere with communication.

Proficient – Letter Grade of B or A

SPECIAL PROJECT ASSIGNMENT SEQUENCE – FRESHMAN YEAR

- Project 1 Website Reviews from the Internet.
Provide a short review and critique (not just a list) of twenty educational websites on your instrument. Limit the number of websites that sell merchandise or instruments to not more than five. At least fifteen websites must be educational in nature. Worth 100 points.
- Project 2 Completion of a minimum of 8 hours of “tutoring” middle school musicians.
Helping others who are less experienced is one of the true joys of being a musician. It is a time honored tradition to share your knowledge and experience with those who are younger and/or less experienced. Tutoring others is also a terrific way to learn more about music and to discover if teaching is an area of interest you may wish to pursue. Schedule regular appointments with a middle school student to help them free of charge. All this must be coordinated with the middle school band director as well as your YPAS band directors. Never be alone with one other student or teacher. If supervision is not available, reschedule the session.
- Project 3 Satisfactory Participation in an All-County Band.
At a school for the performing arts, all students should take advantage of as many opportunities as possible to experience the audition process. With practice, students will learn how to pace their preparation in the practice room, control the stress and anxiety of performing “live” in front of an evaluator, and understand that later in life they will have to compete for job opportunities in any profession and always present their best work in an interview or application process. A high school musician will only receive a limited number of opportunities throughout their high school experience for such an audition. Each opportunity strengthens the quality of the next. Therefore, the audition itself is required of all students in Symphonic Band and Wind Ensemble and is worth 25 points out of a possible 100 points. Participation in the All-County Band earns the other 75 points. An alternative assignment worth 75 points is available for those who do not pass the audition process.

- Project 4 Satisfactory Participation in an All-State Band or Orchestra.
Students selected to perform with the All-State Bands or Orchestra will earn 100 points. An alternative assignment worth up to 100 points is available for students that may not pass the All-State audition.
- Project 5 One Distinguished or Proficient Rating for a Solo Performance at the Kentucky Music Educators Association Solo/Ensemble Festival or Two Small Ensemble Performances. All Intermediate Band, Symphonic Band, and Wind Ensemble students are required to perform at the KMEA Solo/Small Ensemble Festival. This assignment is worth 100 points. An Alternative assignment worth up to 100 points will be available for students that have a director approved reason that prohibits their participation at the KMEA Solo/Ensemble Festival.
- Project 6 Satisfactory Participation in one of the Louisville Youth Orchestras
Or
Satisfactory Participation in one of U of L's Large Ensembles
Or
Satisfactory Participation in a YPAS Woodwind Quintet, Saxophone Quartet, Flute Quartet, Clarinet Quartet, Double Reed Quartet, Mixed Woodwind Ensemble, Brass Quintet, Brass Quartet, or Percussion Ensemble that rehearsed all year long and performed on Band Concerts, Chamber Concerts, and/or Elementary/Middle School Recruitment Presentations (minimum of 2 performances).
Or
Satisfactory Participation in the Macauley Chamber Music Competition
Or
Perform at the New KMEA State Solo/Ensemble Festival in May

Outside performance groups of high quality and experience with small ensemble literature are very important to the growth and professional development of an instrumentalist. Both foster individual skills different from the band experience in which parts must be prepared that are not doubled - increasing personal responsibility to the ensemble and exposing the student to literature of many different styles and time periods not available to the symphonic band or wind ensemble. Students in these groups may earn 100 points. An alternative assignment with up to 100 points is available for those students which are not chosen for the Youth Orchestra or for some reason do not participate in a YPAS small ensemble.

[Note: If the student performs more than one of the above projects for the sixth six weeks during the year – the extra work will count as extra credit toward the final semester grade].

INDIVIDUAL PRACTICE TIME THOUGHTS

Following are some thoughts on how your individual practice time will influence your development. All times are based on a daily amount of practice. Practice time is time spent alone practicing music for your private lesson, fundamentals, etudes, convocations, or music being studied in Intermediate Band, Symphonic Band, Wind Ensemble, Jazz Ensemble, Percussion Ensemble, Full Orchestra, Pit Orchestra, and all Honor Groups.

This does not include any time spent in rehearsal, performance, or any music not included in the above explanation.

A consistent approach to practice with adequate time spent on fundamentals is the only way to improve.

30 minutes per day	You may maintain your current level of performance without much difficulty, but others will leave you behind as they improve.
45 minutes per day	You will make some progress if time is used efficiently and you have a well-designed plan to follow.
60 minutes per day	You will start to notice improvement on a regular basis in areas you are focusing.
75 minutes per day	Friends will start to notice your improvement.
90 minutes per day	Teachers will start to notice your improvement.
120 minutes per day	You will be on track to earn admittance and scholarships to top universities and conservatories.

PRACTICE IS A VERY IMPORTANT PART OF YOUR DEVELOPMENT AS A MUSICIAN AND YOU MUST APPROACH DAILY PRACTICE SERIOUSLY!

WHAT YOU DO AT HOME, BY YOURSELF, IS PRACTICE.

WHAT WE DO AT SCHOOL, TOGETHER, IS REHEARSE.
